BELL COMPANY MUST NOT ALLOW WIRES TO STOP WORK ON BUILDING.

Second National Bank Must Pay for Changing Wires While Building Is Being Erected.

PEACE IS AGAIN RESTORED

Injunction Against Bank Is Dissolved and Wires Will Be Removed and Work Continued on Iron Work of Structure.

UNIONTOWN, July 28.—The court this morning dissolved the preliminary injunction against A. C. Wilson, owner of the Second National Bank, and peace will reign about the building operations for the new bank. By its decree this morning the court directs that the Bell Telephone Company segregate its wires so that they do not interfere with the work of the erection of the building, and that the bank pay the cost of the work not exceeding $200. A provision in the decree stated that if the defendant bank agreed to accept the terms of the decree within six hours a former injunction against it was to be dissolved without further order. This was accepted by Robinson & McKean, attorneys for the defendants, and the Bell Telephone Company will be compelled to segregate its wires so that they will not interfere with the erection of the building. The order of the court is as follows:

Now, July 29, it is ordered and decreed that the plaintiff company, within 48 hours from the filing of this order, segregate its wires along the property of the Second National Bank building, and on the side next to the property, to the line of its cables on North Pittsburg street, and on completion of said work, and before proceeding with its building operations, the Second National Bank shall pay to the plaintiff the actual expense of labor and materials involved in the segregation of its wires to an amount not exceeding $200.

It is further ordered that the filing of this order shall constitute a stipulation agreeing to comply with the terms of the preliminary injunction heretofore granted, shall thereupon be dissolved without further order.

P. J. Murphy this morning stated that the work of segregating the wires would be started immediately, a special gang of workmen being called here from Monaca to perform it. The lines will be bunched together and carried along the cable lines, giving an additional feet in which to swing the iron beams and erect them, sufficient, it is stated by engineers, for the purpose. This was the original proposition made by the company's engineer, S. B. Grace, and is in line with the company's policy regarding the erection of large buildings all over the United States. It is the company's practice to aid in helping in the building line, but it has always been the policy for persons erecting buildings, when wires interfered, to request their removal and stand the necessary expense that it entails. The company has always stood ready to make changes under these conditions, but the territory is too vast for it to assume the expense of doing it on its own account.

It must be remembered that the company has a large business and that it is serving thousands, and that interference with the company's wires, not only inconveniences the company, but the public who are paying for this service. Mr. Murphy stated that while there had been some heated feeling at the hearing yesterday, it was wholly impersonal on the part of the company, and that what had been done was a matter which their patrons not only in Connelleville, but in other towns expect them to do to preserve peace and the cable lines, giving the wires on North Pittsburg street are the main system over which nearly all the local service passes as well as the long distance service.

The injunction proceedings straightened out this morning had nothing whatever to do with the removal of the objectionable pole, but was only to secure local service relative to the safety of the wires.

PRINCIPAL RESIGNS.

After Being Elected to Vanderbilt Schools Prof. Stanley Will Not Accept.

VANDERBILT, July 28.—E. Leslie Stanley of Kaufman, who was elected principal of the borough schools on July 13, has written to C. B. Arson, secretary of the board, tendering his resignation. No cause can be assigned as to why he did not accept the place. This leaves the matter open for any one who desires to make application for the position. The board will meet in the Vanderbilt Hotel next Monday when the vacancy will be filled together with the other one caused by the resignation of Miss Bess McLaughlin.

HON. HENRY SHERMAN ALSOP. The Right Honorable Henry Herbert Alsop is the Premier of the British Cabinet and therefore the most powerful Englishman in the world for the time being. He succeeded the late Campbell-Bannerman as Premier, and has been able to lead the factions of which the Liberal party is composed together in a way that has surprised his enemies and delighted his friends. He was born at Marley, England, on September 12, 1862, and has been twice married, the second Mrs. Alsop being Mrs. Emma Alice Margaret Tennant, daughter of Sir Charles Tennant. His favorite pastime is golf, to which he is devoted.

DISAPPEARING SHOES LEAVE NO FOOTPRINTS.

South Side Shoemaker Mourns Loss of Footwear But Thief Makes His Escape.

Frank Mantell, a shoemaker, with a shop in the Colonial building, allegedly called upon the police to catch a thief who had jumped into his window, while his back was turned and ran off with a pair of shoes. Mantell came all the way from the South Side to tell his trouble and the result was that by the time Officer Thomas McDonald reached Green street, no thief was in sight.

A search was made throughout the district but no one could be found with the pair of shoes. Mantell says he feels sure one of the South Side boys took the pair of shoes and he will probably secure a warrant for a lad he has under suspicion.

WAR CLOUDS HOVER OVER VENEZUELA.

Netherlands Government Prepares Battleships to Sail at Minute Notice—Excitement Prevails.

HAGUE, July 28.—(Cable.)—The Netherlands Government has ordered the battleships Huiskorsh, Plutheim and Eversten and the cruisers Holland, Utrechtland and Friesland to assemble in the West Indian sea. The commander of the last Indian squadron has been notified to be prepared to dispatch his fleet to Venezuela at a moment's notice.

The ministry of Marine are negotiating for the purchase of several fast steamships to supplement the fleet in the event of a blockade of Venezuelan ports. The order assembling the fleet has occasioned intense excitement throughout the capital and is taken to mean that the Netherlands despite the socialist opposition at home is plunging into war with Venezuela unless Castro completely backs down from his arrogant position.

FATHER'S EFFORTS FUTILE.

Loses Life in Brave Attempt to Save Drowning Son. CUMBERLAND, Md., July 19.—W. W. Worthing, aged 38, a Baltimore railroad engineer, was drowned in the Potomac river near here yesterday while trying to save his little son, Carl.

PRINCE DEPARTS.

Great English Cruiser Will Try to Break Atlantic Record. QUEBEC, July 28.—(Special.)—On board the indomitable Great Britain's greatest cruiser, the Prince of Wales sailed this morning for England. The big lighter is scheduled to make the fastest time record across the Atlantic in an endeavor to beat the dashes of the steamers Mauretania and Lusitania.

A special crew, firemen and cargo of coal were made ready before the departure. No ship of any navy or mercantile marine of any nation is believed to possess the indomitable's speed. The Prince expressed regret that he was unable to accept the invitations received to visit the United States.

JUDGE REFUSES TO GRANT INJUNCTION.

Will Not Prevent Water Company From Crossing Field.

OWNER OBJECTS TO LINE.

Question of Allotment Brought Up, Letters of Administration Granted and Committee for Woman Named by Court Yesterday.

UNIONTOWN, July 28.—A preliminary injunction was refused by Judge E. E. Umbel yesterday against the Potomac Water Company, upon the petition of Dr. J. N. Eastman. Dr. Eastman sought to prevent the company from digging up the fields on his farm to lay a water line. Bond in the sum of $1,000 was furnished by the Frick Company. The court held that the law gave to water companies the right of eminent domain and that a preliminary injunction should not be issued. The case was expected and an appeal will be taken.

Upon the application of attorney George Patterson, Judge Van Dyke granted a writ upon Clifford R. England, the divorcee of his wife, Gertrude England, to show cause why she should not be awarded alimony of $20 a week for the support of herself and child and $200 funeral fees. The rule is returnable the third Monday in August.

By the will of Sarah K. Martin, who died at her home in South Brownsville July 12, all of her estate with the exception of $3 is left to her daughter, Mary W. Martin, who is also named as executrix. The estate is valued at $300. Personal property and $450 in realty. To three grandchildren, Garret, Katherine and Violet Martin, daughters of a deceased son, Frank Martin, the testatrix gives $1 each. The will is dated May 11, 1902, and is witnessed by Robert Bullington and H. G. Mason.

Letters of administration were granted by the register in the estate of Frank W. Carlson, who died in Fayette City July 22, last, leaving a personal estate of $1,000 and realty to the amount of $600, to a brother, Andrew G. Carlson, bond in $2,000 being furnished by W. H. Reestrom and Charles Reestrom, father and brother live in Sweden. Besides these there is another brother and a sister to share in the estate.

J. F. Woodhouse was named by Judge Umbel as the committee of Sarah J. Irwin, a weak minded woman of Ohio, upon the petition of the poor directors of the county. The woman has an estate of a few thousand dollars and an income of $2,000 a year. A bond of $3,000 was furnished by the committee.

TAFT IS ACCEPTED.

Now Full Fledged Member of Steam Shoelovers Union.

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—(Special.)—Judge Taft, the Republican candidate for President, this morning became a full fledged honorary member of the International Steam Shoelovers Union. The honor conferred by international officers at his brother's home. Mrs. Taft leaves Cincinnati at nine o'clock tonight for Hot Springs.

WHAT IS BECOMING OF THE CHILDREN IN FAYETTE COUNTY A PERPLEXING QUESTION.

UNIONTOWN, July 28.—What is becoming of the school children of the county is the question that is now perplexing the County Commissioners. The returns of the Assessors show that there are 3,343 less children in the county this year than there were last year, and there is a suspicion that the Assessors have not paid as much attention to this feature of assessing as they should.

The total number of school children in the county reported for 1902 was 28,919, compared to 24,586. There is some mix-up in the returns from Dunbar township, but the figures are arrived at by giving the township the same number as it had last year, 2,045. All districts in the county except seven show declines in the number of school children. In the year Uniontown has lost 846 and Connelleville 20. In 1902 there were 2,178 and in 1903, 3,323. Connelleville had in 1902 1,846 and in 1903 has 1,626. New Haven had in 1902 496 and in 1903 has 424 school children.

DID NOT RECEIVE THEIR APPROVAL.

The Chamber of Commerce Against Increase in Freight Rates.

ARGUMENT TO PROTECT MEN.

Vanderbilt Lines Say If Rates Are Not Advanced Out-Will Be Made in the Wages of Employees—Plan Not Favored Here.

William Hindusdale, special agent for the Vanderbilt Lines, was a caller at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday endeavoring to secure signatures of endorsing men to a document requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to allow an increase on commodity of 10 per cent.

Hindusdale put up a strong argument in favor of the increase in rates. He said that all roads had practically agreed to increase their freight rates in order to prevent a cut in the wages of workmen of a like amount. He argued that the increase in freight rates would not be as disastrous to communities as the reduction in men's wages. He said that practically all the labor unions had endorsed the idea.

While he secured a number of signatures to the paper it was pointed out that the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad did not employ any considerable number of men in this territory, and that while the Baltimore & Ohio paid out large sums in wages here it did not make the request. Further there was nothing in the request indicating the company to agree not to reduce the men's wages.

A feature of the request is that the increase in rates is to be brought directly home to the consumers of supplies, only commodity rates being raised, while iron, steel, coal and coke is not to be affected. He stated, it is said, will be made to increase these rates, as the big consumers will not stand for the increase.

If the rates are increased and the wages of the men left as they now are, practically all of the ten per cent. will be eaten up by the cost of supplies, so that there would be little change for the better among the workmen on the railroads, besides a number of merchants point out the fact that freight rates go up often faster than they come down and there is no telling what present rates would be reduced by the time the new rates would be.

Mr. Hindusdale desires the approval of the Chamber of Commerce, but he did not receive it.

NOT AWAY FROM OFFICER.

Policeman Breaks Mace Over Man's Head and Continues on. VANDERBILT, July 28.—Policeman Harrison Wygle last night after noon had an exciting experience with a prisoner and who by the way gave him the slip. The man's name could not be learned and it is believed that he lives in the vicinity of Dunbar.

He is a tall muscular fellow and it must have been his intention to jump the town rod for when he started up Main street he commenced to whoop and yell at the top of his voice. Wygle started after him and attempted to arrest him. The fellow resisted and the policeman then started to use his mace.

When the policeman laid his hands on him he started to run. It was then that he brought his mace down on his head and the mace and not the fellow's head was broke. Then began a chase between the officer and prisoner, but the latter was more fleet of foot and made good his escape by boarding a street car going in the direction of Connelleville. The affair caused a little commotion for a time.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—(Special.)—Battling Nelson and Joe Gans are matched to fight for the lightweight championship of the world at Colma on September 8. James Goffron arranged the match which is for 45 rounds. Eddie Smith has been selected as referee.

COACHES SECURED FOR PICNIC CROWD.

More Than Half a Hundred Necessary for Big Outing.

CONNELLSVILLE TO GET 40.

Mt. Pleasant Will Have Ten, Scottsdale the Same Number and Dunbar at Least Half a Dozen Trains Necessary to Carry Crowd.

Practically every arrangement is now completed for the Mercantile picnic August 1 at Scenerywood Park. The Transportation Committee has arranged with the Baltimore & Ohio railroad for 40 coaches. Of this number Connelleville is to have 40; Mt. Pleasant, 10; Scottsdale, 10, and Dunbar, 4. This, however, makes no provision for West Newton and towns along the line, but the company feels that it will be able to take care of all passengers with this number of coaches, and an accommodation train. The rate for towns outside of Connelleville will be five cents additional for children and 10 cents additional for adults. This applies where a guarantee is not posted.

A committee representing the Connelleville High School town called upon Secretary W. C. Armstrong last evening and requested that they be given the game of baseball with the Mt. Pleasant High School. Frank R. Graham, chairman of the committee, stated that it would be impossible to do this as arrangements have been completed with Dunbar, and as those out of town folks were only asking representation by being given the base ball game he did not think it quite fair to even endeavor to make the change.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Conductor Almost Electrocuted As He Attempts to Change Signal. MT. PLEASANT, July 28.—Steady Paulkewstein, a conductor on the West Penn railway, had his hands and arms badly burned today by coming in contact with a live wire. It was miraculous that he was not killed, for the wire was charged with 6,000 volts. Paulkewstein, who was on the Scottsdale car, was getting off to change the signals at Swedetown, when his hand came in contact with a live wire which protruded from the pole above. The only thing that saved his life was the fact that he was not on the ground, but leaning off the car. The wire burned the flesh of his hand. The wounds were dressed by Dr. Snelcar. It will be several weeks before the conductor will resume work.

MADAME FALLIERES. Madame Fallieres, wife of the President of the French Republic, is a charming woman whose splendid intelligence is credited with having added much to the brilliant success of her husband's administration. She invariably accompanied President Fallieres on his important trips abroad and lately was the guest of King Edward and Queen Alexandra of England when her husband was entertained by British royalty. The President and Madame Fallieres have one son and one daughter, both of whom are prominent in the social life of the first capital of Continental Europe.

OFFICER TO READ GAUGE IN RIVER.

Burgess Asked to Detail Man to Watch Rise and Fall of Water in Yough.

Secretary W. C. Armstrong this morning consulted Burgess A. D. Soisson relative to having a police-officer detailed to take the daily readings of the Young water gauge. He stated that his business frequently requiring him to be out of town interfered with the work, and he believed that an officer could perform the duty very satisfactorily each day.

It is probable that the job will fall to Health Officer Allen Hyatt to perform. The regular police say that it would give him a nice little bit of exercise morning and evening, and would not crowd his other work overmuch.

The gauge yesterday between 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. recorded a fall of six inches in the river. It has continued to fall today, and is rapidly getting down to the low water mark.

PROPERTY OWNERS PLEASED.

Inspection Has Been Made of Francis Avenue, But Council is Undecided What to Do in Connection With the Thoroughfare.

The paving of North alley has been completed, clearing up all the paving work undertaken by the Town Council, and with the exception of Francis avenue, there are no others on the calendar for immediate improvement. Contractor P. J. Flynn finished up the work yesterday, and the street, it is said, will be accepted at the next meeting of the Town Council. The paving of the alley makes a decided improvement and the property owners generally are pleased with the work. It makes another good passable street to the Baltimore & Ohio station and will be much used.

The members of Town Council went over Francis avenue and found it as bad as the citizens reported it, but they are undecided what shall be done with the thoroughfare. Some of them think that macadamizing it would put it in good shape for a number of years, while others want brick or asphalt. The steepness of the street makes it hard to repair temporarily, and if it is paved it will be difficult for teams to make their way down it. This question will be thoroughly thrashed out at the next meeting of the Town Council.

SALVATION ARMY PICNIC A SUCCESS.

About 200 People Given Outing at Seison Park Through Efforts of Organization.

The Salvation Army is today holding its picnic at Seison park. The officers of the Army were up bright and early this morning and loaded several wagon loads of provisions for the day's outing, and said they had been able to make provision for about 200 people.

The day will be spent in all kinds of picnic pleasures, and everything that the Army has will be given free and with good will. Several meetings will be conducted during the day, the dancing pavilion having been turned into a place for the religious sessions.

The merchants about town contributed liberally to the Army workers for the day and the West Penn Company placed a special car on the suburban car this morning to carry the pleasure seekers. It is the first Salvation Army picnic ever given here, and the officers hope to make it a big success. Many poor children came from the surrounding neighborhood this morning to participate in the outing.

SCRAMBLE BEING MADE FOR FIREMAN.

Vacancy in Department Will Be Bought by Many—Place May Be Abolished.

By the resignation of Jonathan Hutchcraft there is a vacancy in the fire department, and a scramble for the job will in all probability result. It is a nice, easy job, although the pay is not attractive. There were upwards of 500 applications for the vacancy on the police force, and it is said that at least that number are anxious to have a berth in the fire department.

It was rumored today that the Council would not employ a man for the place, having before Hutchcraft resigned considered seriously the reduction of the force of four paid men to three regular men.

Hutchcraft left the department to take a place as locomotive for the West Penn Electric Company, and has already started in upon his new duties.

Woman on Bonfire.

NEW YORK, July 28.—(Special.)—A revolting crime was bare this morning when the body of a woman was found burning on a bonfire on a vacant lot in Culyer street, Brooklyn. The destruction of the body was to hide murder. It seems certain. It is doubtful if the identity of the woman will ever be discovered. The entire detective force of the district is working on the case searching for clues.

The Weather. Fair tonight and Thursday, nearly stationary temperature, is the indication at noon.

Bargains in Building Lots at South Connellsville.

You naturally ask WHY are they Bargains?

The reasons are simple and convincing.

1. They are Bargains because they are Cheap. There are no other lots so near to Connellsville that are as low in price as these lots are. Prices range from $300 down to $40. They have been made to suit the times. This is the time to get in on the Ground Floor.
2. There are no other lots better provided with the conveniences of living, which make real estate valuable, among them may be mentioned:

TROLLEY SERVICE. Only ten minutes from center of Connellsville. Only one fare, with exchange for the main line.

CITY WATER. The mains of the Connellsville Water Company are laid on the principle streets.

ELECTRIC LIGHT. The electric light service of Connellsville extends to South Connellsville.

NATURAL GAS. The mains of the Fayette County Gas Company traverse the principle thoroughfares of South Connellsville.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS. A new public school building is in course of construction in the heart of South Connellsville, convenient to all sections of the town.

Workingmen with a little capital laid by are not wise to pay Extravagant Rents when they can buy a lot in South Connellsville for a mere fraction of what they have to pay for lots in Connellsville proper and yet have the conveniences of the citizens of the town.

Only a short walk for B. & O. shop men.

TERMS: Ten per cent. down, and the balance to suit convenience of the purchaser.

HOME FROM CONVENTION. George B. Snyder tells of Big Elk Meeting at Dallas.

George B. Snyder, who was the top representative of Connellsville Lodge B

P. O. E. at the Dallas convention to turned home last night. He says that the Dallas Elks are most hospitable fellows and gave everyone a glad welcome but the South in the summer time was too much for the local representative.

The Dallas decorations he said were elaborate and the greatest that country ever saw but they did not compare with the decorations at Baltimore and Philadelphia. Mr. Snyder visited Cleveland, Dayton and New Orleans while South but he said that after all Pennsylvania is the best State in the Union. It is possible to say to go to Texas with $100 and buy a good farm and live comfortably but there are some conditions that he does not take altogether kindly to.

A GOOD PLAN. Easy Way to Make Provision for Fixed Charges of Any Kind.

Have you premiums to meet on your insurance policies? Interest on a mortgage or fixed charges of any kind to provide for? The easiest way to do it is to open a bank account and deposit each week or month the amount necessary to meet such charges. For instance, if you have an annual payment to make of $250, deposit $5 every week or $21 per month. You will find it much easier to do this than to pay out $250 in a lump sum. The First National Bank of Connellsville will be glad to have you open either a checking or savings account for such purposes. Your per cent interest on savings.

Much as he would like to mingle with the elite, entertain sumptuously at home and "eat out" at least three days in the week, he cannot afford it, and makes honest confession of the fact. So Mr. Bryan, who is rich in his own right, and will have besides the official Government allowances set apart for the maintenance of the White House, rushes to the rescue with an offer of free quarters at the Executive Mansion and a part in all the official hospitalities and functions. He is not encumbered by a large family connection for whom he will have to provide quarters. He can tuck the Kerns away very comfortably without straining the resources of the building. Levees, dinners and so on could be held jointly or separately, without the smallest confusion, and Mr. Kern would thus be able to do a good deal with his own modest salary on the outside.

We confess the pleasure it gives us to imagine the practical operation of this arrangement. There has never been anything quite like it at the White House, but that only adds to the excitement and the gaiety. The Democrats now have only to land their man in November, and we shall see the wheels go round.

New York American.

In naming John W. Kern for Vice President, the Democrats selected the personal counsel, the personal friend and the personal choice of Tom Taggart, who dictated his nomination.

In the light of this choice Mr. Bryan's offer to divide the White House with Kern, should he be elected, presents interesting possibilities.

On the possession of a wing of the White House, Mr. Kern may want to divide it with Mr. Taggart, whose natural instinct would prompt him to turn his half of the wing into a gambling house.

Quite Good Enough.

She had just received a message through the telephone and, still holding the receiver to her ear, said to her husband:

"The Thompsons want us to dine with them, tonight. Is it good enough?"

Before he could speak over the wire the answer came: "Yes, quite good enough. Come along."

An Ideal of Patriotism.

Let our object be our country, our whole country, and nothing but our country. And, by the blessing of God, may that country itself become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror, but of wisdom, of peace and of liberty, upon which the world may gaze with admiration forever.—Daniel Webster.

Easy Bookkeeping.

A young husband, finding that his pretty but rather extravagant wife was considerably exceeding their income, brought her home one day a neat little account book. This he presented to her, together with $50.

"Now, my dear," he said, "I want you to put down what I give you on this side, and on the other write down the way it goes, and in a fortnight I will give you another supply."

A couple of weeks later he asked for the book.

"Oh, I have kept the account all right," said his wife. "See—here it is."

On one page was inscribed, "Received from Willie $50," and on the opposite page was the comprehensive little summary, "Spent it all."

Calming Him Down.

"If women just had a little tact and didn't try to please their husbands when their husbands sit to jawin' and tawin' around, there'd be less trouble in families," said Mrs. Grim to a neighbor.

"I suppose that's so," replied the neighbor.

"I know 'tho," replied Mrs. Grim. "Do you suppose I lose my head and my tongue and go all to pieces and say things I'm sorry for afterward when Grim gets into one of his tantrums? Well, I don't. I just keep cool and calm him down."

"How do you calm him down?"

"Well, sometimes with a stick and a gun with a broom handle, or maybe I'll grab up a pair of water and douse it all over him. There's plenty of ways to calm a man down if a woman will only keep cool herself and try 'em."

A Real Surprise.

"Where are you going, ma?" asked the youngest of the five children.

"I'm going to a surprise party, my dear," answered the mother.

"Are we all going too?"

"No, dear. You weren't invited."

After a few moments' deep thought: "Say, ma, then don't you think they'd be lots more surprised if you did take us all?"

His Openers.

"Brothers and sisters," began the old man, "I shall not choose any particular text this morning, but shall preach from where I open the book, and no matter where I shall find the wrath that is to come upon the wicked, will be cut off when they have shuffled off this mortal coil. It is now open, and—"

Here the parson was interrupted by a deacon who had been asleep and, hearing the words "open, cut and shuffle," forgot himself and cried out: "It's yours! What did you open?"

The surprise of the good man in the pulpit was great, but the deacon collapsed when the reply came. "It is opened on Kings."

No Band.

When the airship got into general use our custom house officials will have the time of their lives trying to collect the tariff duties.

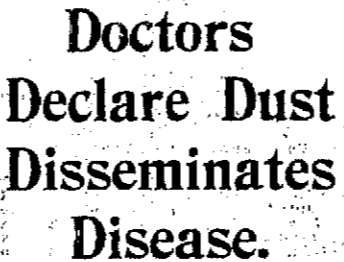

He consequently bought the turkey, and a day or two later when eating it he came across several shot. Later on, when he met old Ephraim on the street, he said:

"Well, Ephraim, you told me that was a tame turkey, but I found some shot in it when I was eating it."

"Oh, that was a tame turkey of right," was Uncle Ephraim's reiterated rejoinder, "but do fact is, best, it's going to tell yer in confidence dat dem dere shot was intended for me."

Doctors Declare Dust Disseminates Disease.

Dust on store shelves and stock indicates disease. It indicates a sluggish condition of the business blood. Dust accumulates where trade decays. Dusting the shelves with a duster is like taking drugs—a dose now and then relieves, but it doesn't cure. Build up the blood of your business and make the microbes migrate.

GRAVES FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Kansas Delegate, Who Insisted on Putting W. J. Bryan's Name Before Convention, Is Nearly Mobbed by Infuriated Delegates.

Chicago, July 29.—Thomas L. Hisgen of Massachusetts was nominated by the Independence party at its convention here last night for president of the United States. John Temple Graves of Georgia had a strong following and was a close second on the first two ballots. On the third ballot, the vote split evenly between Hisgen and Graves and it was soon evident that his nomination was certain. Virginia broke from Graves and placed Hisgen within a few votes of success. Then came Washington with ten votes for Hisgen and he was nominated. Then a scramble for the hand of Missouri was the first to discuss in what direction it was headed and swung its vote for Hisgen. Georgia changed from Graves to Hisgen and then they came too rapidly to count.

The third ballot resulted: Hisgen, 51; Howard, 28; Graves, 7; Hearst, 2. A roar of applause followed the announcement of the ballot and a motion making the nomination unanimous was adopted with a yell. The usual parade of standards around the hall then commenced while the band played patriotic airs.

Chairman Walsh appointed as members of the committee to prepare the program, Messrs. Howard, Graves and Lyon, who had just been competitors of the Massachusetts man.

C. J. Shearn of New York presented the name of John Temple Graves for vice president, asking that he be given the unanimous vote of the convention. Indiana's candidate, Charles F. S. Neal, was nominated by E. G. Ballard of Gary. The next candidate to appear was Steven Charters of Arizona. Omaha's sponsor was John H. Kelly of that state. Graves was nominated on the first ballot.

The currency plank in the platform caused much discussion early in the evening, many delegates refusing to support the "central government bank" idea embodied. It was finally passed amid great confusion. "Gentlemen of the convention," said Chairman Walsh on calling the convention to order, "the next thing on the program is the presentation of candidates for the nomination for president of the United States. The secretary will call the roll."

The roll proceeded until California was reached and the announcement was made that the state yielded to Massachusetts.

Alabama Nominates Howard. "Has Alabama been called?" demanded a delegate from that state. "It has," replied Secretary De Ford. "Alabama has a candidate," declared the delegate. The clerk then recounted the roll call and Dr. L. A. Fealey of Alabama took the rostrum to place in nomination Milford W. Howard of Fort Payne, Alabama. As Dr. Fealey proceeded some of the delegates in the rear of the hall became restless and interrupted him with applause of a sarcastic nature.

The resumption of the roll of the roll brought no response from Arkansas, but California yielded to Massachusetts and Rev. Roland D. Sawyer of the latter state nominated Thomas L. Hisgen.

The roll proceeded until Georgia was reached and Bernard Suttler of Atlanta presented the name of John Temple Graves. Mr. Suttler declared that the present was the best time in forty years to break up the Democracy in the south and to compass the defeat of the Democratic party, which he characterized as a "mobbed organization which obstructs the development of the south."

The roll then progressed until Kansas was reached. J. L. Shepard of that state asked the chairman if it was possible to vote for any candidate for the nomination who was not a member of the party. He mentioned the "candidate of the Democratic party," and a shout of hisses and boos greeted the reference. He had spoken but a few minutes when the delegates broke in upon him. Charles H. Mitchell of Illinois offered a point of order, saying it was evident that the speaker was about to put in nomination a man who was not a member of the Independence party. He therefore asked that the convention proceed to name a candidate of its own.

A scene of riot followed, several delegates attempting to reach the rostrum for the purpose of offering physical violence to the speaker. Mr. Mitchell persisted in asking if Shepard intended to nominate a man not a member of the Independence party. "Of course I don't want to deceive you," said Mr. Shepard. "I intend, if I am allowed to finish, to nominate Mr. William J. Bryan."

The hall broke into a wild uproar, a dozen delegates again madly struggling in the main aisle in an attempt to reach Mr. Shepard. Cries and shouts were shaken at him furiously, while howls of execration went up from all sides of the hall.

Mr. Shepard ruled out of order. Quiet was a long time coming, but when it arrived Chairman Walsh ruled that inasmuch as Mr. Shepard had attempted to nominate a man who was not a member of the Independence party he was out of order. A frantic yell of approval went up from the convention.

Shepard instantly started to leave the platform and a crowd of delegates, all of them in an ugly mood, closed in, and for a minute or two Shepard was in actual danger. John Dally, a delegate from the Twenty-fifth assembly district of New York city, struck violently at Shepard's head with a cane and if the blow had not been intercepted might seriously have injured him. Dally was shoved down into a seat and escorted by the sergeant-at-arms. Shepard was taken to the door and told to leave the hall. He lost no time in obeying the injunction.

After quiet had been restored the roll of states proceeded. Maryland seconded the nomination of John Temple Graves and Massachusetts yielded to California, which seconded the nomination of Hisgen of Massachusetts. Michigan also seconded Hisgen.

Hearst Placed in Nomination. When Ohio was called, the name of William Randolph Hearst was for the first time mentioned as a candidate by A. F. Otte of Cincinnati. Only a "shout" of applause followed the speech of Mr. Otte, it being generally understood that Mr. Hearst did not desire the nomination. Pennsylvania, through Samuel P. Wheeler, seconded Hisgen. Rhode Island seconded the nomination of Hisgen. So did Utah and Vermont. South Carolina seconded Graves, as also did Virginia. The speeches closed with seconds for Hisgen by Washington and Wyoming and for Graves by the District of Columbia.

What Party Stands For. Important planks in the Independence party platform follow: Creation of a central governmental bank, through which the currency should pass to the people. Direct nominations by the people. The initiative and referendum and the right of recall. Severe and effective legislation against all forms of corrupt practices at elections and the prohibition of the use of money at elections except for meetings, literature and necessary traveling expenses of candidates is demanded.

Over-capitalization of industrial enterprises is denounced. The arbitrary use of the writ of injunction in contempt proceedings is condemned as a violation of the right of trial by jury. It is declared that no injunction should issue until after a trial upon the merits and that such trial should be had before a jury and that no person should be deprived of liberty in contempt proceedings without trial by jury.

The enactment of a law prohibiting the blacklisting of employees is favored, as is the passing of an employers' liability law. Child labor is denounced and prohibition asked.

A demand is made for a gradual reduction of tariff duties with just consideration for the rights of the public and established industries. The government ownership of all public utilities, including railroads and telegraphs, is urged.

The creation of a postal savings bank is asked. Other important planks declare for a larger navy, endorse the inland deep waterway project, advocate the popular election of senators by the people, favor a graduated income tax, an exclusion act against Asiatic immigrants and creation of an interstate commerce court.

Lila Zane Cook Not Guilty. Wheeling, W. Va., July 29.—The jury in the trial of Lila Zane Cook, charged with the murder of Charles Bennett, a young man of New Kensington, Pa., brought in a verdict of not guilty after being out four hours. MOTHER HAS A NEW THEORY.

Mrs. Drew Says Hazel Was Hypnotized, Then Murdered.

Troy, N. Y., July 29.—"My girl Hazel was hypnotized, and then murdered," declared Mrs. John Drew, mother of the girl whose corpse was found two weeks ago on the bank of Teal pond in an interview with an Associated Press representative. There was a pitiful tremor in the woman's lip and she furiously wiped away a tear as she made the assertion.

Mrs. Drew said that ever since Hazel's sudden and mysterious death she had been revolving in her mind every possible motive of clue that might lead to a solution of the tragedy. "I've thought this matter over," continued Mrs. Drew, "and I am sure Hazel did not commit suicide. Why should she? She was happy and had everything she wanted. If anything had been wrong she would have come to me. She always did and I gave her everything she asked, whether it was money or anything else. I don't believe it was Hazel that Frank Smith or those other people saw on the Taborian road that night walking alone. She was taken out in an automobile or a carriage by someone, maybe from Troy. I believe it was someone who was well-to-do and who had Hazel in his control and who did what ever he asked her. He took her out there while she was under his influence and murdered her."

Nothing could shake Mrs. Drew's belief in this new theory of the mysterious tragedy. Asked if she had any person in mind who might have perpetrated a hypnotic influence over her daughter, Mrs. Drew slowly shook her head. The district attorney was notified of Mrs. Drew's statement and promised to investigate it fully.

BURNED AT STAKE.

Negro Boy Meets Terrible Death at Hands of Mob.

Dallas, Tex., July 29.—Tad Smith, a negro boy, sixteen years old, charged with criminal assault on Miss Viola Delancy at Clinton, Hunt county, was captured by officers. He was taken before the young woman and identified.

The prisoner was then hurried to the Greenville jail. Before arriving there, however, a mob of citizens overpowered the officers, took the prisoner and prepared to hang him. This idea was given up, however, and the mob agreed to burn him at the stake. Fagots were piled up in the public square at Greenville and the negro was placed on them. Kerosene oil was poured on and a match applied. Smith slowly burned to death while hundreds of persons looked on.

Tourist Has Narrow Escape.

Winipeg, Man., July 29.—Baron von Rosenberg of Germany, a tourist in the Canadian Rockies, had a miraculous escape from death near Banff while climbing Mount Rundle. He stepped on some projecting snow near the summit and his weight caused the bank to give way and he was carried down with it forty feet. Fortunately there was a snow drift under which he was caught and there he remained in safety while tons of snow and ice tumbled over him on a mad rush to the base.

With the arrival of McCombs, there now are five "Mucks" on the Clarksburg campus. McCombs, McAloose, McAvoy and McCormick. There are three other "Mucks" in the county, McCleary of Charleroi, McCreary of Uniontown and McElvaine of Greensburg.

AN EVEN BREAK.

Charlottesville and Fairmont. Each Take Game in Double Header.

CHARLOTTE, July 29.—Charlottesville and Fairmont split over here yesterday afternoon, the Cherubs taking the first contest with Bert Humphries in the box 3 to 2 and the Babes taking the second contest with Jenkins on the hill 3 to 1. After the second inning of the first argument the Babes could do nothing with Humphries. Jenkins was in second form in the second game, allowing but five hits. Errorless support was given Mack in the second game. Fisher, the Babes' first baseman, was on the mound for the West Virginians in the first game. The scores:

Charlottesville.....	1	0	0	0	0	2	0	3	—
Batteries.....	F. Humphries and Duley; Fisher and Snodgrass.
Second Game.
Fairmont.....	0	0	1	0	0	2	0	0	—
Batteries.....	Jenkins and Jackley; Mack and Duley.

None of the five runs of the game were earned. It was only a case of Conneliville making more errors than the Drummers.

Gratifying to its first game yesterday and won it. The question of the management is as yet undecided.

While three of the bouts were not of the highest caliber, the non-appearance of the participants, the remaining bouts were sufficiently interesting. The preliminary bouts were put off for a night under the direction of Al Smith. The main bout of the evening was between Al Smith and "Kid" Carter and "Kid" Carter of Pittsburgh. In the exception of the last preliminary and the main event, which was refereed by Eugene Easler of Brownsburg, all bouts were refereed by Mar-
